

POLICY: HUMAN RESOURCES

Purpose

People – Staff, students and community are the most valuable resource that Trinity Catholic College has. The Human Resources policy will enable the Board to achieve its goals for the people within the Catholic Community of the College.

Policy objectives

- Everyone will be treated with Christian love and compassion and their individual contribution to the corporate body will be recognised.
- All within the College will be encouraged to develop their full potential.
- As a good employer the Board will use the four values of the College, Respect, Service, Justice and Truth to inform Human Resource decisions.
- To provide equitable access, consideration and encouragement in areas of recruitment, selection, promotion, conditions of employment and career development.

Guidelines and limitations

1. All employment-related legislative requirements are applied.
2. Employment records are maintained and all employees have written and signed employment agreements.
3. A Professional Growth Cycle, that incorporates the Standards for the Teaching Profession, will operate for all registered teachers in the college.
4. An annual appraisal system will operate for support staff.
5. An annual staff development system will be implemented and will relate to the strategic goals of the College, the needs of staff identified through either the Professional Growth Cycle or the appraisal system, and the curriculum development needs for the College.
6. An industrial relations process, described in relevant current collective agreements, will inform performance management and grievance procedures.
